Warm-Hearted Care, Your Way

A MESSAGE FROM LINDA BEAUMONT

The decision to enter a Residential Care Home is a big one, and not just for those who will become accustomed to sharing space with others, enjoying dining experiences, outings and activities, but also for those who are less accustomed to sharing space with others, including those who may gravitate to the quiet space of their room, or to peaceful zones within the facility. This change for some will be an easy transition, whilst for others it may take a little time to adjust. Residential aged care is provided for those who have a need of care in a residential setting, and this aspect of the journey - the delivery of care to residents - is where our professional, caring staff come into their own. Interactions between residents and personnel must be respectful. There are processes in place at all aged care homes for meeting individual preferences and the choice of residents and families, while professional staff working in the industry, some for many years, continue daily to provide their expertise at the right moment.

To residents, families and Beaumont Care personnel working together - thank you for all you do. To residents who make the home their own, continue to enjoy. We appreciate your comments and participation in every aspect of the home.

Until next time,

Linda

FROM THE CLINICAL TEAM

Welcome friends and family.

Spring is almost here and as the weather warms up, remember our signs warning of the possibility of snakes in the surrounding bushland, and if you see anything you're not sure of, call a staff member immediately.

With the warmer weather coming staff will be in contact if your loved one requires cooler clothing and we are encouraging fluids as much as possible to ensure full hydration is met.

If you have any concerns at all or want an update on your loved one please don't hesitate to call even if its just for a check in and a chat.

Until next month,
