Paul Prince - 19th

Jonathan Marchant - 21st

Happy Birthday!

GETTING TO KNOW OUR RESIDENTS

Patricia Curnoe

Patrica was born in NSW.

Patty did not attend school, she travelled Australia doing farm work and worked in a clothing factory.

She settled in Scarborough when she had her daughter Wendy. Patty enjoys concerts, music, dancing, and singing.

She takes great pride in the running of the bingo sessions on a Tuesday and Saturday, this gives her a great sense of accomplishment. Patricia is always happy to help others and always up for a laugh and conversation.

LIFE AT BEAUMONT CARE

Residents celebrated bringing in the New year with a high tea party, we reminisced over the past 100yrs and the changes that have happened over the world. We sang songs and danced to some great music that has been very popular over the years. Enjoyed some great sweet and savoury treats, fantastic social event for residents getting to know each other better. We celebrated at Noon bringing in the new year with some party poppers and whistles while old lang synne played bringing in the new year of 2025.

LIFE AT BEAUMONT CARE

Residents enjoyed a cooking session of making pancakes. They enjoyed the discussions, measuring, mixing, and stirring of the ingredients. The cooking demonstration that Catalina and Lisa did when cooking the pancakes in the fry pan. Best of all the sensory smells, tasting of the Pancakes with the toppings of their choices that they got to taste.

LIFE AT BEAUMONT CARE

Josie, Patty, and Jan all were happy to help make the biscuit spread for the happy hour session. They had a great sense of accomplishment in the helping with the organising and the preparation of the snack food for the event.

LIFE AT BEAUMONT CARE

Residents have been continuing to enjoy and work hard in the group exercises.

Lots of fun and laughter making for a great morning while continuing to maintain muscle and balance.

Residents have become very friendly with a bird, Charlie the pigeon continually visits with them in the outside garden. He perches himself on the walker, their shoulder and hands spending time with them. The residents have named him and have taken him on as their pet. Pictured is Lenore and Charlie the pet pigeon.

LIFE AT BEAUMONT CARE

Bingo and happy hour are still a very popular event with the residents they enjoy an afternoon having a cold beverage and nibbles waiting in anticipation for the right numbers being called to win the prizes on the trolley.

LIFE AT BEAUMONT CARE

Residents enjoyed a scenic drive to Bribie Island and a delicious lunch at the Pig face restaurant at Bribie. A great day that was enjoyed by all.

LIFE AT BEAUMONT CARE

Residents celebrated Australia day with a high tea party, they enjoyed some typical Aussie foods- Lamingtons and Tim Tams accompanied with cupcakes and savouries. Fantastic social event sharing stories and experiences. Singing along to some Australian Classics and learning something new in the trivia questions about Australia. Pictured is Anne, Patty, Gina, Jan and Julie, Loran, and Barbara. The group enjoying the high tea party and the delicious Australian cup cakes that were enjoyed.
