GETTING TO KNOW OUR RESIDENTS

David

David is our resident of the month for February. David is as Queenslander as they come, he was born in Cunnamulla and spent the first few years of his life there, where he and his family often camped on the land while his dad was working as a fencer. From here the family moved into the Redcliffe area where David spent his childhood, he loved the area so much he stayed working and living in and around Redcliffe and Deception Bay before joining us here at Wamuran. After finishing school David did an apprenticeship where he became a motor mechanic, a career he loved and did for over 30 years! David is a loving Husband, Father, and Grandfather, he and his wife Sue have been together for almost 40 years. In their youth David and Sue enjoyed camping trips by the river, where they would spend a week enjoying the simple life and catching fish from the river for dinner. These days David likes to take it easy, whether that be a coffee in the café with Sue, watching the cricket or tennis on TV, or enjoying a leisurely walk enjoying the scenic outlook.

Management and staff offer our deepest sympathy and condolences to the family and friends of

Gordon Knowles, and Jessie Morgan
