GETTING TO KNOW OUR RESIDENTS

Betty Palmer

Betty was born in England.

Dancing and singing gives Betty a great sense of pleasure in life.

Betty is most proud of her community work and has been volunteering with Lions for over 20 years. She continues to do so selling tickets at the Redcliffe Dolphins raising money for great causes.

Family means everything to Betty. She is very social and active, enjoys bingo sessions, bus adventures and socialising and meeting new people.

LIFE AT BEAUMONT CARE

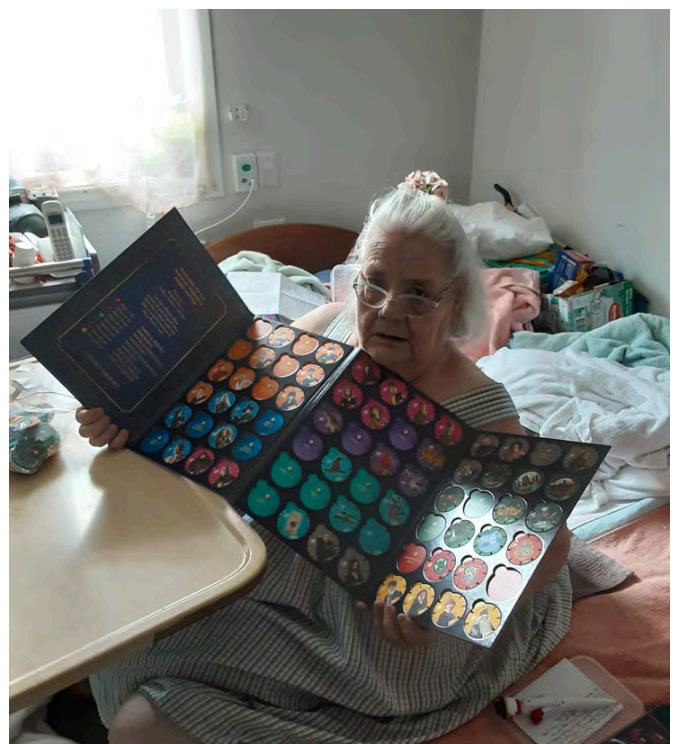

Residents have been keeping busy and doing activities that they enjoy and take great pride in.

Vonnie continues to enjoy playing the piano in the dining room. She also has a passion for colouring in. Vonnie is very talented, and you can often hear her playing her favourite songs.

Ursula has a passion for arts and crafts, and she continues to make some great pieces with her sewing machine and creating craft pieces.

Betty had a good time doing the Valentine's Day crafts and enjoys having a singalong while she does her art and craft work.

Cheryl is busy working on another project making the supermarket books for the nurses' children and grandchildren. She is very proud of the arts and crafts she creates and enjoys making things for other people.

LIFE AT BEAUMONT CARE

Residents enjoys a cooking session this month of vegetable fritters. Catalina and Shelley did the cooking demonstration for all the residents to enjoy.

You could smell the cooking down the hallway bringing in more residents to sample the dish and be part of the session.

A lovely morning discussing the cooking, tasting and smelling the lovely vegetable fritters.

LIFE AT BEAUMONT CARE

BBQ at the beach

Residents enjoyed a bus outing to Scarborough beach for a BBQ lunch, scenic views, sea breeze and sunshine while enjoying great company on a fantastic day out.

Education session with RN Jenna

Residents were very engaged in the discussions on Personal care and hygiene, oral care, and choice.

A very informative meeting and residents are very excited for more educational sessions with Jenna on different topics.

RESIDENT MEETINGS

A reminder Resident meetings take place every month in the 3rd week.

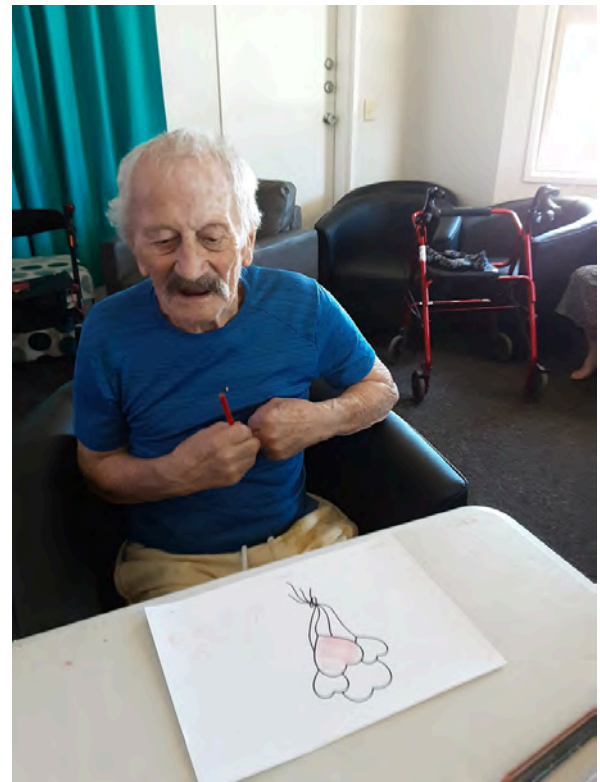

All family and friends are welcome to attend. Discussion includes information updates, reviewing and evaluating the previous months menu and lifestyle program. Upcoming events and trips and creating the new lifestyle program for the upcoming month are also a focus.

LIFE AT BEAUMONT CARE

VALENTINE'S DAY

Kippa ring residents have celebrated the month of love Valentines Day with some fantastic entertainment with Darren, chocolate strawberries and milkshakes. They have been keeping busy in the craft session making hearts and roses.

Our wall in the media room with the day's date and year is a huge success. They have worked very hard on this, and it looks amazing. Trivia, quizzes, and reminiscing sessions about first dates and where they took their dates made for a very interesting session, learning more about our wonderful residents and their lives.

LIFE AT BEAUMONT CARE

Waitangi Day

Residents have celebrated New Zealand day - Waitangi Day. They worked very hard on their arts and crafts, making pom poms and feather displays with New Zealand traditional sayings and meanings for the table decoration for the New Zealand high tea party.

Armchair travel included visiting all the scenic destinations and learning all about an amazing country with the trivia and quizzes.

LIFE AT BEAUMONT CARE

BUS OUTINGS

Residents have enjoyed the bus outings this month to the leagues club for live entertainment, lunch, singing and dancing.

Heaps of fun and laughter.

They also enjoyed a scenic drive around the Redcliffe and Sandgate foreshore followed by a lovely lunch at the boat club at Scarborough.

They enjoyed the sights of all the boats and the fish in the water around the restaurant waiting for them to throw left over chips for feed.

The surf club at Bribie is also one of the trips that they enjoyed and are looking forward to their return. Fresh oysters and fish and chips on the menu as well as lots more on offer. Great day out enjoyed by all who attended the bus outings for this month.

LIFE AT BEAUMONT CARE

Residents have enjoyed having a game of cards, with plenty of competition playing poker using chips.

A good morning was had with anticipation on getting dealt a good hand and taking a shot at some luck.
